The Arthouse aims to represent its communities in all their diversity. We therefore value varied perspectives and experiences, encouraging open conversations and active listening. We believe that everybody is entitled to feel welcome and safe at the Arthouse. We are actively working to achieve diversity across our staff, board, participants/volunteers and audiences, to reflect the area.

We are therefore interested in applications from people from backgrounds which are under-represented in the heritage, arts and cultural sectors, including people from low-income backgrounds and people from Black, Asian and ethnically diverse backgrounds.

The Arthouse is committed to environmental sustainability and so we are interested in hearing about how you work with us as environmental responsibility at its heart.

Shortlisting & evaluation

Shortlisted candidates will be contacted by email and invited to attend an interview. The selection process will include a review of responses and a panel interview. If you require any special arrangements at any stage of the selection process (this may be due to a disability, neurodivergence or another need) please contact Florence Andrews at administration@focus-consultants.com

Each proposal and interview will be evaluated using the following evaluation framework:

Quality	Methodology setting out how you would approach the Brief	To what extent does the proposal demonstrate an understanding of and an ability to meet the Brief and Programme? To what extent is the methodology appropriate to the requirements set out in the Brief?	30%
Quality	Relevant experience and track record – please provide 3 data sheets of similar projects	What degree of similar scale heritage, NLHF and community experience does the bidder demonstrate in order to successfully complete the work? How well has the bidder demonstrated they could deliver the services to the quality standards, budget and timetable required?	20%
Quality	Team CVs	What experience of similar scale heritage and community experience does the team have, specifically the day to day contact?	20%
Price		Price will be scored by awarding 30% to the lowest bid, then comparing that lowest figure as a percentage of the other bids.	30%

Questions and queries

If you have any queries regarding the process or the brief, please contact Florence Andrews at administration@focus-consultants.com.
